

Lenox Hill Medical Center New York, NY

Projects at this medical center include orthopedic ORs; a new pediatric acute care unit; a new central TB isolation exhaust system, private practice offices and an outpatient clinic; a new ambulatory surgery center with six ORs and related administrative spaces; the redesign of MEP systems serving the Center's two main entrances; a JCAHO Statement of Condition Preparation; master planning for a new integrated pavilion and the complete renovation of the Wollman Building; master planning and reconfiguration of an operating suite for the Manhattan Eye, Ear & Throat Hospital after its acquisition by Lenox Hill; medical gas master planning; etc.

